

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

Why should I join Berry Street's 'Regular Giving' program?

Berry Street aims to help children, young people and families overcome the effects of family violence, significant trauma, abuse and neglect. Healing and recovery takes time, and requires steady funding to maintain.

By giving on a regular basis, you provide predictable support to our programs, and allow Berry Street to respond to the needs of children, young people and families across Victoria.

Regular giving also reduces fundraising expenses by eliminating the need to send paper reminders, additional appeals or extra mailings.

Joining Berry Street's 'Regular Giving' program provides the reliable support that we need for service delivery of our programs.

Here's how it works

1. Each month, a regular amount would be automatically deducted from your credit card or bank account (direct debit).
2. You choose how much you would like to donate, and can increase or decrease the amount at any time. A gift of 33 cents a day from you would be $10 per month.
3. At the end of the financial year you'll receive a receipt for your regular donations.

Benefits to you

- Regular Giving is convenient. Each month, the amount you nominate is deducted automatically from your credit card or bank account.
- Regular giving is paperless. You won't receive any renewal notices or appeals correspondence throughout the year. Just an annual receipt sent to you each July. All contributions are fully tax-deductible.
- You have control over your giving. You can increase your donation amount or make changes at any time.
- You can take pleasure in the knowledge that you are making a difference to the lives of children, young people and families affected by family violence, significant trauma, serious abuse and chronic neglect.

The advantages of monthly giving

Monthly giving not only makes it more convenient for you to support children, young people and families affected by family violence, significant trauma, abuse or neglect, it also enables us to cut down on fundraising costs. This means we can direct more funds into our programs and effectively plan for the future.

Becoming a Berry Street Regular Giver also means you will receive regular updates from us as to where your funds are going, and updates on your program area of interest.
